I spoke with Rick Steck today, who informed me regarding the Spanski dispute. I wanted to make sure you received these documents (which Rick forwarded to me) in which claims have been made against . There is a hearing on the preliminary injunction request set for June 4th at 2:30 pm in NYC.

According to Dick Steck, he is only representing Tony Hoti, personally, and Intercom Ventures, LLC. Obviously, I cannot represent you in this matter since we do not handle litigation and are not licensed in New York. You need to ensure that you have your interests represented by counsel in these matters.

Dylan, as you know, you indirectly control Intercom Poland, LLC, through your control of DBPol, LLC (the manager of Intercom Poland).

If there is anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Dear Mr. Steck,

This law firm represents the Plaintiffs in the above-captioned action.

Please find attached courtesy copies of (1) A Complaint filed against Intercom Ventures, LLC, Intercom Poland, LLC, Tony Hoti and Dylan Bates; (2) An Order to Show Cause on Plaintiffs' Preliminary Injunction Motion; (3) Plaintiffs' Memorandum of Law Supporting the Preliminary Injunction Motion; (4) A Declaration from Boguslaw M. Spanski; and (5) a Declaration from Michael Barnett.

These documents were all filed in federal court in Manhattan today, and served this afternoon at the Chicago offices of Intercom Ventures, LLC and Intercom Poland, LLC.

The Court has set a hearing on Plaintiffs' preliminary injunction motion for June 4 at 2:30 p.m.

Sincerely,

Michael Barnett

Michael Barnett
